

Handbook of Emerging Economies

Forward
Deepak Lal UCLA
dlal@econ.ucla.edu

Part I Introduction-Overview
(1) Introduction
Robert Looney
relooney@nps.edu
Naval Postgraduate School
(2) Key Trends in the World Economy
Uri Dadush
UDadush@ceip.org
Carnegie Endowment for International Peace Idea
Idea

Part II The BRICs
(3) Brazil
Albert Fishlow
af594@columbia.edu
Columbia University
Still need tables
(4) Russia
Phil Hanson
HansonPhl@aol.com
Chatham House
(5) India
Surjit S. Bhalla
Oxus Research and Investments, Delhi
ssbhalla@gmail.com
(6) China
Pieter Bottelier
pbottelier@bottelier.net
SAIS, Johns Hopkins
(7) South Africa
Robert Looney
Naval Postgraduate School
Relooney@nps.edu

Part III Key Lessons: The Transition to Emerging Status
(8) Modern Stage Theories and their Relevance for Emerging Economies
Robert Looney
Naval Postgraduate School
relooney@nps.edu
(9) Keys to Success: The Beijing, Washington, or Competitiveness Consensus?
John Williamson
Peterson Institute for International Economics
JWilliamson@PIIE.COM

Part IV Diverse Success Stories
(10) Israel
Paul Rivlin
Privlin@post.tau.ac.il
Tel Aviv University
(11) Singapore
Linda Lim
University of Michigan
lylim@umich.edu
(12) Chile
Patricio Navia
New York University
pdn200@nyu.edu

Part V Likely Success Stories
(13) Turkey
Fatih Ozatay
TOBB EKONOMİ VE TEKNOLOJİ ÜNİVERSİTESİ
fatih.ozatay@etu.edu.tr
(14) Indonesia
Zamroni Salim
Habibie Center
zamronisalim@yahoo.com
(15) Mexico
Francisco Gonzalez, Johns Hopkins, SAIS
fgonzalez@jhu.edu
(16) Malaysia
Herizal Hazri
Asia Foundation
Herizal@asiafound.org

Part VII Assessing the Future

(26) Implications for Global Governance
Leslie Armijo
Portland State University
leslie.armijo@gmail.com Cynthia Roberts, Columbia
car52@columbia.edu
(27) Challenges of Managing Emerging Economies
Domingo Cavallo
Yale University
Former Finance Minister, Argentina
(28) Korea's Rise, Crisis and Recovery
Bernhard Seliger
Hanns Seidel Stiftung, Seoul bjseliger@yahoo.de seliger@hss.or.kr
(29) China and India, 2025: A Comparative Assessment
Charles Wolf
Rand Corporation
wolf@rand.org

Part VI Possible Candidates: The Difficult Road Ahead

(17) Argentina
Domingo Cavallo
domingo.cavallo@yale.edu
Yale University
(18) Vietnam
Martin Rama
World Bank
Mrama@worldbank.org
(19) Philippines
Dante Canlas
University of the Philippines dante.canlas@up.edu.ph
(20) Pakistan
Shahid Javed Burki
Former Finance Minister, Pakistan and Vice President of the World Bank sjburki@yahoo.com
(21) Egypt
Bob Springborg
Naval Postgraduate School
rdspring@nps.edu
(22) Thailand
Peter Warr
Peter.Warr@anu.edu.au
Australian National University
(23) Iran
Hamid Zangeneh
Widener University
hxz0001@yahoo.com
Idea
(24) Colombia
Nake M. Kamany/Laura Amey/Danielle Ramirez USC/Naval Postgraduate School/Columbia
kamrany@usc.edu larmey@nps.edu danirami89@yahoo.com
(25) Saudi Arabia
Robert Looney
Naval Postgraduate School
relooney@nps.edu